

Sarah Brewer Johnson

1850-1950 Centennial Biography

Sarah Brewer Johnson was born December 22, 1872, at Hopewell Township, York, Pennsylvania. She graduated from the York Collegiate Institute at the age of eighteen.

She was sent to Utah by the Presbyterian Mission and taught school at Hyrum, Cache County, Utah. She also taught at St. George and Monroe.

She was married to Melvin T. Johnson, June 27, 1895 at Salt Lake City. Later she was converted to the Latter-day Saints Church being baptized by James Gough.

She was active in Church work, having served as a Young Women's Mutual Improvement Association teacher, Ward Organist, and Relief Society secretary.

She passed away August 10, 1931.